Three-Gold Pieces: A Greek Folk Tale

One day, three men come to a desert where there is a gold mine. They are all poor and decide to work in the mine to earn some money. However, they soon realize that the mine is guarded by a dragon with three heads. The dragon requires them to pay three gold coins to pass it. Each gold coin is worth five gold pieces, and they only have two. The dragon is so angry that it breathes fire and the three men run away. They never return and are never heard from again.
